The Global Service Fair will showcase groups, projects, courses, programs, etc. who either support or engaged in global service. This could include global fundraising initiatives, international service trips and internships, or another type of project with a global service component. The Fair is a great chance to: get involved as an intern, volunteer or group member; make connections with student groups, faculty members and community organizations; learn about global service projects that are happening in our area; network with and learn from community professionals, University personnel from various offices and departments, and students interested in making global change happen.

Ambassador Joseph Melrose has worked for the United Nations and US Foreign Service for over 30 years, serving in Sierra Leone, Nigeria, Syria, and Vietnam. As an insider at the UN, Ambassador Melrose is an expert on the inner-workings of the organization. He will be discussing the political deal making that occurs behind the scenes as well as sharing his career experience with the UN and US Foreign Service. The talk will be followed by a Q&A, where students are encouraged to ask about careers in the UN and US Foreign Services. Sponsored by Binghamton Dorm Room Diplomacy, the History Department, the Political Science Department, the MPA Program, and the CDC.

The Endicott Performing Arts Center Repertory Company is presenting the smash Broadway musical comedy "Spamalot" November 8 - 17 at EPAC's Robert Eckert Theater, 102 Washington Avenue, Endicott. Rude Frenchmen, cancan dancers, and the somewhat odd Knights who say "ni" are just part of the adventures and dangers awaiting King Arthur and his Knights of the very very round table in their quest for the holy grail. Volunteers needed November 8, 9,15 & 16 at 8pm, November 10 & 17 at 3pm to work as Ticket Seller/Box Office, Ticket Ripper, Usher, Balcony Usher, and Concessions. Please contact Joe Hauck with your times of availability if you are interested.
