Foundation that requires participating, connecting and engaging with others on campus and in the community to form coalitions for change. Vote Everywhere (VE) is a unique initiative, which carries on the legacy of the civil rights movement and is inspired by the work of Andrew Goodman—a sophomore at Queens College, who was murdered along with James Chaney and Michael Schwerner during Freedom Summer 1964 while attempting to register African-Americans to vote. VE thus empowers a national community of campus leaders to mobilize others to act on issues of importance using their votes, voices and networks. In addition to the stipend, the Ambassador will receive training from national experts in civic engagement, engage with a supportive "e-mentor", and will be expected to work 8-10 hours per week. | REACT to FILM: Seeking Binghamton University Student Chapter Leaders | Contact: Dahlia Graham dahlia@reacttofilm.com | REACT to FILM is seeking enthusiastic leaders and innovative thinkers to join their College Action Network! Chapter Leaders are the front-line youth leaders, promoting social issues by screening the most important social issue documentary films at colleges across the country. They depend on campus chapter leaders to organize and host local screenings 2X per semester, in conjunction with other RtF chapters across the country. This creates a national moment on each social issue via simultaneous screenings, which are usually followed by panel discussions, and which give student the means to REACT to the important social issues of today and make collective VOICE heard locally and nationally! Chapter Leaders gain invaluable insight into how a new and successful technology/media startup is built, and have direct impact on marketing and growing the impact of a national nonprofit aiming to empower America's youth. REACT to FILM will provide a structured program with plenty of guidance and opportunities for professional development, and expects you to bring your creativity, passion, and initiative in order to succeed.
