THE FERNAND BRAUDEL CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF ECONOMIES, HISTORICAL SYSTEMS, AND CIVILIZATIONS AT BINGHAMTON UNIVERSITY PRESENTS

ATLANTIC TRANSFORMATIONS: POLITICS, ECONOMY, AND THE SECOND SLAVERY
A CONFERENCE IN MEMORY OF CHRISTOPHER SCHMIDT-NOWARA
APRIL 29-30, 2016

FRIDAY, APRIL 29

9:45 – 10 A.M.
Welcome: Richard E. Lee, Director, Fernand Braudel Center, Binghamton University

Opening Remarks: Dale Tomich, Deputy Director, Fernand Braudel Center, Binghamton University
Luis Miguel García Mora, Institute of History, Fundación Mapfre

10 A.M. – 12 P.M.
A Century of Imperial Transformation, 1780–1880: From Monarchical Empires to the Imperial Nation
Josep M. Fradera
Universitat Pompeu Fabra
Barcelona, Spain

Shifting Landscapes: Change and Transformation in West Africa during the Era of the Second Slavery
Christopher DeCorse
Syracuse University

2 – 4:30 P.M.
El cese del comercio legal de esclavos en Cuba y la segunda esclavitud
José Antonio Piqueras
Universitat Jaume I
Castellón, Spain

Toward a Database of North American Runaways from Slavery: Early Returns
Edward Baptist
Cornell University
Ithaca, New York

The Second Slavery and the Decline of the Brazilian Sugar Industry
Dale Tomich
Binghamton University

SATURDAY, APRIL 30

10 A.M. – 12 P.M.
La segunda abolición: Contra el patronato: Labra y Cepeda
Luis Miguel García Mora
Fundación Mapfre
Madrid, Spain

Why the Ten Years’ War Erupted in Cuba: Sugar, Livestock, and Spain’s Colonial Policy in the Nineteenth Century
Reinaldo Funesa
Fundación Antonio Nuñez Jiménez
Havana, Cuba

1:30 – 2:30 P.M.
Transatlantic Patriotisms: Race and Nation in Spain’s “War of Africa”: Impact on 1860 Colonial Cuba
Albert Garcia-Balañà
Universitat Pompeu Fabra
Barcelona, Spain

Politics of the Second Slavery
Robin Blackburn
Essex University
England

Photo Courtesy of Fundación Nuñez Jiménez (Havana). Fondo de Agrimensores Serafin Sánchez Govín

ALL SESSIONS HELD IN THE FERNAND BRAUDEL CENTER, AA–330, BINGHAMTON UNIVERSITY

WWW.BINGHAMTON.EDU/FBC
FBCENTER@BINGHAMTON.EDU