Heidi B. Goldstein ’81

Heidi B. Goldstein ’81 is senior vice president and general counsel for Phoenix House, an organization that is passionate about healing individuals and their families whose lives are threatened, disrupted or otherwise burdened by substance use disorders and related mental health concerns.

As principal legal advisor and a member of the national executive team, Goldstein oversees all legal affairs of the organization. She provides legal counsel, guidance and strategic advice on a wide range of matters regarding the organization’s operations and programs. With the assistance of a deputy counsel, she manages the legal affairs of the organization’s operating subsidiaries in 10 states and the District of Columbia.

Prior to joining Phoenix House, Goldstein had a long career as a litigator at a global law firm. Goldstein earned her bachelor’s degree, with honors, from Binghamton's Harpur College in 1981. She is also a graduate of New York University School of Law.

She was named president of the Binghamton University Alumni Association in 2015, and previously served as vice president and chair of the association’s strategic planning taskforce, which oversaw the creation of the Binghamton University Strategic Plan for Alumni Engagement 2015-20.

Her husband, David Kepke, graduated from Harpur in 1981 with a bachelor’s degree in environmental design.
