The Constitution of The Asian Greek Council

Revised: May 3rd, 2011
PREAMBLE

The Asian Greek Council is established to promote unity among Asian Greek-lettered organizations and to bring awareness of Asian/Asian American culture and heritage not only to their respective organizations but also to the community as a whole.

PURPOSE

The Asian Greek Council is compromised to multicultural Asian-interest Fraternities and Sororities, which shall:

A. Address concerns affecting the Asian community on campus and at large.
B. Partake in cultural, educational, political, and philanthropic activities.
C. Encourage a better understanding and communication among organizations that compromise the Asian Greek Council
D. Promote closer communication among other Greek and Non-Greek organizations.
E. Enforce this constitution and the constitutions of respective organizations in the Asian Greek Council

ARTICLE I – Name

The name of the organization shall be the Asian Greek Council at Binghamton University.

ARTICLE II – Membership

All multicultural Asian-interest Fraternities and Sororities recognized by the University and approved by the members of the Asian Greek Council. (Refer to Article VII – Council Expansion Organizational)

ARTICLE III – Organization

The Asian-Greek Council shall consist of two duly elected representatives from each respective member organization.

Section 1: Duties of the Council Representatives

A. Representatives shall have the option of running for positions in the Executive Board, Greek Review Board, Community Service, Fundraising, Cultural, and Rush Chairs.
B. Representatives shall perform their responsibilities as well as any other duties at request of the President of the Asian Greek Council. (Refer to Article IV, Section II)
C. Representatives shall serve as a liaison between their respective organizations and the Asian Greek Council.

Section 2: Rules and Regulations

A. The President of the respective organizations which compromise the Asian Greek Council shall not be able for the position of President of Asian Greek Council during their term in office.

B. Each representative of the Asian Greek Council is entitled to one vote unless his or her voting rights are suspended. (Refer to Article V, Section 3G)

C. Term of Office
   1. Position of presidency requires a full academic calendar year of commitment while all other positions on the Asian Greek Council E-Board require a full academic calendar semester of commitment.
   2. Should any of the officers be unable to complete his or her term in office, the position shall be filled by an appointment of the Executive Board.
   3. The Executive Board members of the Asian Greek Council have the first priority over the vacant positions.

D. Attendance Policy
   1. Council Representatives will attend all meetings and are encouraged to attend all functions held by the Asian Greek Council.
   2. At least two representatives from each member organization, but no more than three(3) representatives must be present at meetings at all times. If an organization is unable to meet this requirement, the organization will be fined by the Asian Greek Council according to the appropriate fine set during that fiscal year.
      a. Each Representative is limited to three absences per academic semester. If the representative accumulates more than three absences, the respective organization he or she represents is required to appoint a new representative.
   3. A minimum of 50% of each organization must attend the 2 AGC community service events and 2 cultural events of that semester. If an organization is unable to fulfill the requirement, a penalty of $5 will be enforced along with another community service/cultural event with 75% mandatory attendance.
   4. If absent without a substitute, the organization will be fined $5. After the first 15 minutes, it would be counted as an absence. That organization will be charged 25 cents for every minute late.

E. Meetings
   1. The Executive Board will set regular meetings at the beginning of each academic semester. Cancellation or change of a meeting date cannot be allowed unless approved by all representatives.
   2. A grace period of 5 minutes of 5 minutes will be allotted because a representative is considered late for the respective meeting.
3. The President reserves the right to call a special meeting if the need arises. Should the special meeting be necessary, the President shall give the Council Representatives at least forty-eight hours of notice.

4. A simple majority of the entire board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business or of any specified item of business.

F. General Voting Procedures

1. All members must be present in order to vote on an issue.
2. Issue will be passed by simple majority vote of the council representatives excluding the president.
3. All organizations under Probationary Recognition Status can not vote on constitutional amendments nor elections for President, Vice President, and Treasurer.
4. All representatives who leave the meeting before it adjourns will forfeit all rights, including voting privileges, for that meeting.
