

S. C. Pierce Collection
Scope and Content
Randall Miles

The S. C. Pierce Collection consists of 707 letters, written between 1869 and 1905, along with 116 other items for a total of 823 items. The majority of the letters were written in response to circulars sent out by the 3rd New York Cavalry Association announcing regimental reunions. There are 318 authors in this collection, of whom 274 were members, or representatives of members, of the 3rd Regiment of New York Cavalry. This represents about 12% of those who served in the 3rd New York Cavalry and survived the war. Also represented in this collection is the 1st Regiment of New York Mounted Rifles.

Each item was unfolded and placed in a mylar sleeve, such that, with a few exceptions, all pages may be read without removing the letter from the sleeve. The items, in their mylar sleeves, were then placed in acid-free folders. Where a letter and an envelope, or other item, were clearly associated the mylar sleeves containing the items are both in the same acid-free folder. As many as fourteen like items may be contained in one acid-free folder. The collection is in one hundred fifty-one folders in one 315 cubic inch, one 2250 cubic inch, and five 630 cubic inch archival boxes, for a total of 5715 cubic inches.

The Letters

The letters in this collection are divided into two categories. First are the Reunion Letters, these are followed by General Letters. The Reunion Letters are arranged by year, and thereunder alphabetically by author. The General Letters are arranged alphabetically by author and thereunder chronologically.

The Reunion Letters consist of responses, either actual letters, postal cards, or telegrams, to circulars sent out by the 3rd NY Cavalry Association announcing the time and place of that year's reunion. The letters at their simplest state whether the writer will or will not attend the reunion. Often included are reasons for not attending the reunion, or news of interest to other members of the association. Frequently these letters are on business letterhead.

The General Letters consist of any letters not specifically about the reunions. These cover any Association business, but most often pertain to pensions or the whereabouts of 3rd NY Cavalry veterans.

Other Documents

The remaining documents are also divided into two categories: Reunion Business and General Business. Reunion Business includes copies of the original circulars announcing reunions and circulars returned to sender as undeliverable. There are also rosters of reunion attendees, a newspaper article describing the first reunion, minutes of a reunion meeting, and receipts for circular printing and other purchases made for the reunions. One Reunion circular, 1891, is framed and housed separately from the other Reunion circulars. General Business includes minutes of Association meetings, a petition, Association rosters, unassociated envelopes, and other miscellaneous items.
