The Fulbright Program provides grants to graduate students at any level, graduating seniors, and recent graduates to support study and research or to serve as an English teaching assistant in more than 150 nations around the world. Over the past four years, 2 graduate students and 13 graduating seniors have received Fulbright Awards: 4 to conduct research in Bangladesh, Ireland, Italy and Malaysia, and 11 to teach in Bulgaria, Georgia, Germany, India, Malaysia, Moldova, Spain, Taiwan & Turkey.

Graduate and undergraduate students interested in learning more about the Fulbright Program are invited to attend one of three scheduled information sessions:

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 5-6 PM, UU 108

TUESDAY, APRIL 19, 5-6 PM, UU 108

THURSDAY, MAY 5, 5-6 PM, UU 108

2017-18 APPLICATION DEADLINE: SEPTEMBER 9, 2016

Applicants must be U.S. citizens. If you are interested but unable to attend one of the sessions, first review the material on both the campus and national Fulbright websites, then contact Professor Steve Straight (straight@binghamton.edu) or Janice McDonald (jmcdona@binghamton.edu).

Campus website: binghamton.edu/scholarships/fulbright.html

National website: us.fulbrightonline.org

Presented by the Office of External Scholarships, Fellowships and Awards