- Goal-1: Binghamton University is a diverse and inclusive community that actively promotes the integration of international students on campus.
- Goal-2: Binghamton University promotes meaningful cross-cultural, extra- and co-curricular interactions between domestic and international students.
- Goal-3: Binghamton University prepares international students for successful career pathways.
- Goal-4: Binghamton University students, faculty, staff and alumni have a positive impact on the global community.
- Goal-5: All Binghamton University students, faculty, and staff have opportunities to develop a broader understanding of the world.
- Goal-6: Binghamton University is a Premier Choice for International Students.

- ❑ Goal: Binghamton University is a diverse and inclusive community that actively promotes the integration of international students on campus.
- ❑ What/How: Office-hosted events or activities that account for international student participation, as tracked by B-Engaged.
- ❑ Why: A campus community that is welcoming for all students increases communication among diverse groups, broadens cultural horizons, challenges stereotypes, and provides an awareness that is critical to contribute to, and effectively participate in, a global workforce.
- ❑ Metric: Percentage of international students participating in an inclusive, long-standing cross-cultural activity/event coordinated by University offices, specifically ISSS, IEGI, ELI and MRC.

- ❑ Target: 20% of the international student population will participate in at least one long-standing, cross-cultural program coordinated by ISSS, IEGI, ELI, and/or MRC per year.
 - (Note: Current international student participation rate is 20%)
 - We will raise the target to 25% for next year.

Meet.... A Conversation Pair

Zhiqiao Huang is an undergraduate student from Shanghai, China, pursuing her Bachelor's in Africana studies. Besides studying African cultures and history, she is planning to double major in both Africana Studies and Global Health, and minor in Global Studies. Zhiqiao is a member of the Audubon Society and Outdoor Club at BingU. She loves nature, so she often attends outdoor activities such as hiking and bird watching. She's also a food lover, and enjoys making food from all over the world.

Amanda Larch is from Westchester, New York. She is pursuing an undergraduate degree in Asian and Asian American studies. After graduation, she hopes to secure a research position about the dynamics of Asian and Asian Americans in the US. Outside of the classroom, she enjoys practicing martial arts with other students on campus. During her free time, she enjoys 'hanging out' with friends and playing with her four dogs. She also enjoys music, watching TV or movies, cooking and baking. She is an avid foodie and loves to explore different parts of the world.

Continued Opportunities:

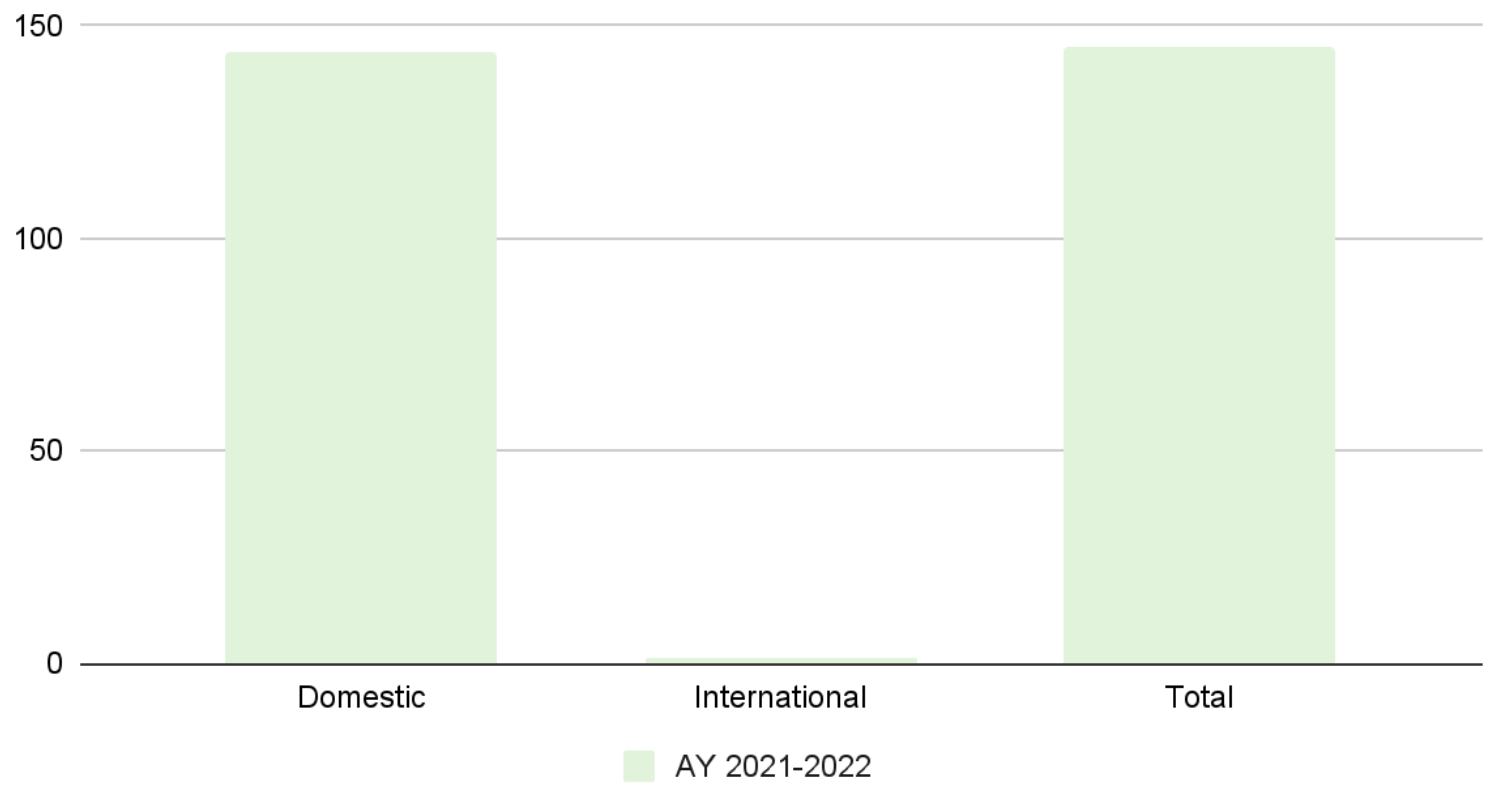

- Train offices on consistent usage of B-Engaged for activity/event promotion and attendance tracking
- Expand the scope and marketing of events to grow awareness and attendance
- Encourage collaboration between existing hosts and new partners on activities/events/programs

- ❑ Goal: Binghamton University promotes meaningful cross-cultural, extra- and co-curricular interactions between domestic and international students.
- ❑ What/How: SA/GSO-hosted events or activities that foster international and domestic student engagement, as tracked by B-Engaged.
- ❑ Why: Events that cultivate meaningful interactions between domestic and international students also enable internationalization to permeate campus-wide.
- ❑ Metric: Percentage of the total student body participating in a long-standing, cross-cultural activity/event coordinated by the Student Association (SA) and/or Graduate Student Organization (GSO).
- ❑ Target: 10% of the student body will participate in a long-standing cross-cultural program coordinated by the SA and/or GSO.

Percentage of International Students Seen Yearly

Percentage Change

- ❑ Goal: Binghamton University students, faculty, staff and alumni have a positive impact on the global community
- ❑ Metric: Number of active international partnerships/activities involving Binghamton faculty, staff, and students.
- ❑ What/how: Faculty self-report global impact/footprint for themselves and their students in the annual faculty report, formally signed agreements with an international scope, and number of activities with international vendors.
- ❑ Why: As a premier public university, Binghamton actively engages with international connections in multiple ways that enhance its reputation globally.
- ❑ Target: Maintain at least 1,000 interactions each year, including partner applications, partnership agreements and events with international touchpoints.

Current Metric:

- Number of new MoUs and twinning agreements that have been signed
- Number Graduate Student Applications from Partner Institutions
- Number of international graduate events we have conducted and recorded in Slate

Additional Metrics

- From Faculty report:
 - Scholarship, Service, and Recognition in which the “international” box is checked (will request to be added as a new feature in next year’s version).
 - publications in which a co-author is international (considered by international rankings) or conference scope is international
- International to domestic student ratio (considered by international rankings)
